Airmen Establish Endurance Record

MOODYS BREAK PREVIOUS MARK SET LAST YEAR

Springfield Airport Crowded As Decatur Brothers Triumph

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—The flying Moody brothers established a new light plane endurance record tonight—kept on going.

At 6:43 P. M. (CST) Hunter Moody, 25, and Humphrey, 20, completed 219 hours and 43 minutes of continuous flying.

The fliers were still in the air at 11 P. M. (CST). At that time they said in a broadcast that "we'll stay up as long as the motor and ship hold out."

Hunter Moody said he and his brother had agreed "to remain aloft as long as we can."

The previous record of 218 hours and 43 minutes was set last year by Clyde Schleiher and Thomas H. and Harley Long of Long Beach, Calif.

The Decatur, Ill., fliers were undecided as to how much longer they would attempt to continue the flight in their 55-horse powered ship, "Miss Springfield," which had kept them up in the air more than nine days.

Hunter Moody, reported by radio that one of the brothers wanted to come down and the other wanted to keep adding hours to the new record. Hunter refused to disclose whether he or Humphrey, wanted to come down.

U. S. Army Air Corps Breaks Flight Marks

Dayton, O., Aug. 1.—(P)—The U. S. Army Air Corps announced tonight its second world record in three days as aviation leaders turned toward this home of the Wright Brothers for tomorrow's 30th anniversary of army flying.

A "flying fortress" today carried 8,000 kilograms (11,023 pounds) a distance of 1,000 kilometers (625 miles) at a speed of 250.388 miles an hour. It streaked from Wright Field to St. Jacobs, Ill., and back at 20,000-foot altitude.

An Italian plane held the previous mark of 251.878 miles per hour. Capt. C. S. Irvine and Capt. Pearl Robey piloted the American plane and Capt. C. J. Crane and Lieut. P. G. Miller were navigators.

Officers also announced that Capt. W. E. Sloan and Capt. B. L. Boatner picked up another record by flying a Wasp-powered Grumman amphibian, the OA-9, 1,000 kilometers at an average speed of 185.084 miles an hour. The former record for amphibians, held in Italy, was 159.8 miles an hour.

Even as the vanguard of visitors arrived from New York and Washington, the air corps supplied a "preview" by sending its largest "flying fortress"—a four engine bomber—cross-country in 8 hours, 14 minutes and 30 seconds, or close to 250 miles an hour.

Major Stanley Urmsted, who flew the ship from Burbank, Calif., planned to take off from Floyd Bennett Field, New York, about 5 A. M. (CST) tomorrow for Wright Field, scene of festivities.

EUROPE'S TWIN TROUBLE SPOTS STIRRED AGAIN

Yugoslavia And Danzig Come To The Front In Crisis

By the Associated Press

Yugoslavia and Danzig, one a nation and the other a free city as the result of the world war, came to the front again yesterday as Europe's twin trouble spots.

In Yugoslavia the leader of autonomy-demanding Croats declared Croatia would secede—even though "it will probably mean a world war"—unless his people obtained home rule quickly.

Regarding the role Germany might play in the threatened secession of the Croats, who account for a third of Yugoslavia's 15,630,000 population, Dr. Vlado Machek, the Croat leader, declared:

"All right—Germany then—let her come and make order. Someone must make order in Yugoslavia. If Belgrade can't, Germany can."

In Danzig, political tension mounted as free city Nazis accused Poland of launching a trade war by refusing to permit further imports of margarine and herring.

Germans in Danzig declared Poland's latest move in "the herring and margarine war" was a "general attack on Danzig's vital economic measures."

The Nazis, charging this and previous Polish trade restrictions would deprive Danzig of $5,000,000 of business annually, threatened to turn to the German market without regard for the customs union with Warsaw.

Great Britain, meanwhile, disclosed new strides towards readiness for any emergency—many expected it in the fall—as parliament approached its summer recess.

Fruit Store Killer Given Prison Term

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—A criminal court jury tonight convicted Anton Papas, 55, a fruit store watchman, of the "water-melon slaying" of an 18 year old girl and fixed his punishment at 99 years in prison.

The jury, which was qualified to inflict the death penalty, deliberated one hour and 55 minutes.

The girl, Miss Muriel Ruth Campbell, 18, was shot and fatally wounded on May 30 after an argument over a smashed watermelon.

Papas testified he fired two pistol shots in the direction of the girl and her young male companion, but did not intend to wound them.

Counsel for Papas said a motion for a new trial would be filed Friday.

BABY DROWNS

Petersburg, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Dana Deane Anderson, 13 months old, drowned today when the toll heading into a six gallon vat of water.

'Human Bomb' Pleads Guilty

Leavenworth, Kas., Aug. 1.—(P)—John Thornburg, 26, pictured above, (right), human dynamite bomb, pleaded guilty today of robbing the First National Bank of Chanute of $4,860 March 27.

Thornburg strapped three sticks of dynamite around his waist and threatened to blow up the bank in staging his home town holdup.

He was arrested recently at Nevada, Mo., after he had been recognized by a man who once was his pupil in a Sunday school class.

Judge Richard J. Hopkins sentenced Thornburg to 35 years in prison.

Strikes In Three States Hit Production; Little Violence

Only in Detroit Area at General Motors Fisher Body Plant Is There Any Rioting; No Serious Injuries Reported

By the Associated Press

Industrial production was hampered yesterday by strikes in three states and across the international line in Nova Scotia, but there was violence only in the Detroit area.

There, 50 policemen, escorting 35 non-striking workers from a General Motors Fisher Body plant, were stoned in the late afternoon by several hundred CIO tool and die workers. It was the third skirmish of the day at that point, but there was no report of serious injuries.

After the 12 General Motors units were involved in the CIO United Auto Workers walkout, the issue centering on the union's demand for a separate agreement covering skilled tool and die workers. The present agreement, drafted in 1937, encompasses only production employees.

Calm returned to Cleveland, where on Monday 46 were hurt in engagements between the police and CIO Auto Workers on strike at the Fisher Body plant there.

Obeying police orders, the unionists reduced their picket squads to seven at each of the plant's five entrances, one of their spokesmen protesting at the same time that it was "purely a violation of our civil rights."

Some non-striking went in to relieve about 300 of their colleagues who had been isolated in the factory throughout the night. On Monday, the crowd about the plant was estimated by the police at about 5,000.

Like Cleveland, South Barre, Mass., scene of a strike at the Barre Wool Combing Company for higher wages and reinstatement of four employees, reported a return to relative peace.

Canadian strikes

The Canadian strikes were confined to Pictou county, N. S., where five units of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company—four collieries and a mill—lay idle last night.

In New York State, a threatened strike of about 15,000 AFL truck drivers was averted, at least temporarily, by an agreement to continue negotiations over wage increases demanded by the union. At the same time, CIO strike preparations were called off in Buffalo, N. Y., after a state supreme court order had restrained the company from making a closed-shop agreement with another union.

Strike Threatens British Railroads

London, Aug. 1.—(P)—A strike of 55,000 employees of Britain's four main railway systems was threatened today as the country neared the peak of its summer holiday travel.

The executive committee of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen announced that it had decided upon the strike and that the date would be fixed at special meetings to be held within the next day or two.

The workers are demanding wage increases, longer holidays, extra pay for Sunday work and abolition of extended duty rosters.

The major railway systems affected are the Southern, Great Western, London and North Eastern and London, Midland and Scotland. They had not replied tonight to the society's action.

CIPS PICKS OFFICERS, DECLARES A DIVIDEND

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Directors of the Central Illinois Public Service Company today elected two new officers and declared a dividend of $1 a share on the $6 and six per cent preferred stocks. The dividend is payable Sept. 15 to stockholders of record Aug. 19, 1939.

H. M. Parker was elected treasurer of the company to succeed J. C. Hapenny, who resigned to become president of the Oklahoma Power and Water company with offices at Sand Springs, Okla. Parker formerly was assistant treasurer and previously had been a CIPS auditor at Mattoon and Marion.

R. C. Sloan was appointed to succeed Parker.

FEDERAL JUDGES

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—The Senate confirmed today the appointments of three federal district judges. They were Campbell E. Beaumont, to serve in Southern California; Harry E. Pratt, to serve in District 4 of Alaska; and Herman E. Moore, of Illinois, to serve in the Virgin Islands.

SON OF DOCTOR ADMITS SLAYING OF STEPMOTHER

George W. Gore, Jr., Is Incriminated By Wife's Story

Cape Girardeau, Mo., Aug. 1.—(P)—Confronted with a statement made by his young wife, George W. Gore, Jr., 32-year-old son of a physician, confessed orally late today, State's Attorney Rea Jones said, that he shot and killed his stepmother, Mrs. Nancy Gore.

Mrs. Gore was slain in her Benton, Ill., home early July 23 by an intruder who fired through a broken pane of glass in the door of a sleeping porch.

Young Gore's wife, Kathryn, 22, made a written statement, Jones said, relating that her husband left her in a Charleston, Mo., hotel on the night of July 22, returned the following morning and told her he had shot his stepmother.

Jones stated he obtained Gore's oral admission after reading him the statement made by his wife.

"I will go back to Illinois with you today and get the gun I killed my stepmother with," he quoted Gore as saying. Jones declined to give other details of Gore's statement.

The return trip was begun shortly after Jones' announcement. Mrs. Gore accompanied Jones and other Illinois officers who came here to question her and her husband.

Gore was free on bond on a charge of murder in connection with his stepmother's death.

Then he and his wife were arrested yesterday and charged with the theft of $700 from a woman who resided in the same private home here with them.

The Gores, married in Chicago in June, 1938, came to Cape Girardeau last May. Gore's father, a prominent physician in Benton, Ill., married his former nurse and secretary after the death of his first wife. He also maintained an office here.

HAYES ISSUES ANNOUNCEMENT FOR CANDIDACY

Confirms Report He Seeks Nomination For Governor

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Edward A. Hayes, 46-year-old Decatur attorney and former national commander of the American Legion, announced today he would seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in the 1940 primary election.

Hayes, prominent in Illinois Republican circles for several years, is the second avowed candidate for the G. O. P. gubernatorial nomination. Richard J. Lyons of Libertyville, unsuccessful candidate for the U. S. Senate last fall, announced several weeks ago.

Hayes listed an eight-point platform that included a call for tax reduction and absorption of the unemployed by private industry. A statement of his political creed said in part:

"It is impossible to strait-jacket the American farmer whose individuality and industry developed this great state.

"Any system of economics in which the government assumes control of agriculture, labor, commerce and industry will destroy the American system of free enterprise."

Hayes was chairman of the committee that drafted the Republican platform at the 1938 convention and was manager of the vice presidential campaign made by Col. Frank Knox in 1936.

A native of Morrisville, Ill., Hayes received his law degree at St. Louis University in 1915. In 1917 he enlisted in the navy and has been active in the American Legion since its formation. He was elected Illinois Department Commander of the Legion in 1929 and became National Commander in 1933.

Snow Over Kansas In August

New York, Aug. 1.—(P)—Snowstorms swirled over Kansas and Pittsburgh today.

Four army fliers, racing along six miles above the earth, shivered in a temperature 18 below zero, fare-thee, while earth-bound folk sweltered in the middle 80s.

"We had on heavy coats, but it was still plenty cold," said Capt. Leonard F. Harman, co-pilot of the army's new 22-ton (Boeing-39) "Flying Fortress," which landed at Floyd Bennett field here after spanning the continent non-stop from Burbank, Calif., in 9 hours, 14 minutes, 30 seconds.

"We were sitting up there in the sub-stratosphere at about 33,000 feet over western Kansas and Pittsburgh and the snowstorms were pretty fierce."

Insurgents In House Smash Lending Bill

SLUM LOTTERY BILL'S VETO IS UNDER PROTEST

Rep. Vacco, Author Of Measure Disputes Its Validity

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—Rep. Carmen Vacco (D-Chicago) sponsor of the slum clearance lottery bill which was vetoed by Governor Horner, said tonight he had sent a protest to Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes, challenging the validity of the chief executive's veto.

Rep. Vacco said his protest, prepared by Attorney Roland Libonati, who drafted the lottery bill, contended the governor did not act on the bill within the 10 days required by the constitution.

Interpretation

Rep. Vacco said Governor Horner did not veto the bill until 25 days after it was passed by the legislature. The governor has acted in the past on an interpretation of the constitution that he has 10 days to act after the bill reaches his desk.

Reached here later tonight, Hughes said he had not yet seen the Vacco-Libonati protest and had not determined how he would act.

"I don't think," he said, "that my department has the right to set itself up as a judge in this matter. It is something for the supreme court to decide."

Rep. Vacco said he would seek a mandamus order directing Hughes to file the lottery bill as an enacted law if his protest was overruled by the secretary of state.

Lending Bill's Illinois Vote Is Announced

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—The Illinois Congressional delegation split straight down the party line on the Roosevelt lending bill today.

The ten Republicans from Illinois voted solidly with the winning side against consideration of the bill by the House.

On the Democratic side, 13 Prairie State representatives supported the bill, with the other four not being recorded.

The roll call for Illinois: Democrats for consideration—Arnold, Beam, Fries, Keller, Kelly, Kozlowski, McAndrew, McKough, Maciejewski, Martin, Parsons, Sabath and Schuetz.

Republicans against consideration—Allen, Arends, Chipherfield, Church, Dirksen, Johnson, Mason, Reed, Sumner and Wheat.

Democrats not voting—Barnes, Mitchell, Schaefer and Smith.

ROOSEVELT HAS MADE DECISION ON HATCH BILL

Will Announce Veto Or Signing Today, Tells Newsmen

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—President Roosevelt told reporters today he had made up his mind what to do about the Hatch bill curtailing political activity by most federal employees and would make known his decision tomorrow.

Earlier in the day officials close to the president had indicated he would have a statement of some kind on the subject within 24 hours. They would not disclose, however, whether Mr. Roosevelt would sign the measure, veto it or let it become law without his signature.

One newspaperman, attempting to draw out the president, asked him at his press conference whether Senator Hatch (D-N. Mex.), the author of the bill, would want as a souvenir the pen used on the legislation. Mr. Roosevelt jokingly replied that not even this question was settled.

Among other provisions, the Hatch bill prohibits federal employees below the rank of policy making officials from taking part in politics other than by voting.

Attorney General Murphy, who had been asked to study the legal phraseology of the bill, called upon the president immediately after his press conference. He remained more than an hour.

He said he would return to the White House later tonight for a final review of the measure.

Denies New Trial For Bomb Slayers

Carmi, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Circuit Judge Blaine Huffman denied a motion for a new trial today for Mrs. Alice Austin and Theodore Simmons, who had been convicted of murder in the truck-bomb slaying of her husband, Earl Austin.

Defense attorneys argued at a hearing there was insufficient evidence at the trial to support the convictions, and they also contended that two of the jurors had talked to outsiders during their deliberations.

The lawyers attacked the testimony of Ira Scott, 29-year-old farmhand, who pleaded guilty and turned state's evidence. They claimed the evidence showed Scott was elsewhere at the time a bomb was placed under the floorboards of a truck owned by Austin, Cave in Rock school janitor.

The explosion near Cave in Rock March 20 killed Austin and maimed his companion, Miss Lacey McDowell.

War Vet Climbs On Bridge as Protest

Cleveland, Aug. 1.—(P)—A thousand persons stood aghast today as a 44-year-old World War veteran staged a one-man relief demonstration on the topmost girder of the Detroit-superior high level bridge, 300 feet above Cuyahoga river.

The demonstrator, Charles Davis, teetered dangerously for a full hour. "Come on down, come on down," chorused police and onlookers.

Davis shouted back: "I'm up here until I get my soldier's relief."

When firemen stretched a 100-foot aerial ladder from the bridge pavement, Davis walked down the west side of the span.

Davis, taken home by police, said, "all I wanted to do was to attract a little attention."

Soldiers relief commission officials began a check of application files to determine the status of Davis' relief plea.

Harry Bridges Will Be Examined Today

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—(P)—Harry Bridges will face a day-long grilling by government lawyers when his deportation trial resumes tomorrow morning, entering the fourth week of testimony.

The government is trying to deport Bridges, a 32-year-old union leader, because he belonged to the Communist party and advocated violent overthrow of the government.

The longshore leader and west coast CIO director, said he was confident his vindication was "in the bag," despite testimony of 16 government witnesses.

Bridges' expected appearance on the witness stand was over strong objection by his attorneys, who contended for the right to present him as a defense witness later in the case.

To Dismiss Office Employees on WPA

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—Charles E. Miner, state WPA administrator, said tonight "we are considering closing district offices and some projects in the state" because of lack of funds and the necessity of dismissing 303 administrative workers in August.

"The entire program is being studied this week by heads of divisions and their staffs," Miner said. "Every available dollar of our share of the administrative funds authorized by Congress will be used to pay workers. Every other item such as rent and other expense will be cut more severely than the workers' checks."

"Our conference will last until Thursday night. Until then no dismissal notices will be given and no other decisions will be made."

VETERAN EMPLOYEE IS GIVEN THE BUSINESS

St. Louis, Aug. 1.—(P)—William P. Lightholder, for 32 years an employee of the William J. Murray Realty company, came to work an hour early today.

Lightholder wasn't an employee any more. He was the owner.

Miss Murray S. Murray, president of the company, died Thursday and in her will, filed yesterday, she left Lightholder the business and $5,000 in cash.

"OLDEST" RESIDENT

Belvidere, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Mrs. Janet Kelly, 97, regarded as the oldest resident of Boone county, died last night at the home of a son, John, near Caledonia.

The last of a family of 11 children, Mrs. Kelly was 63 years old when she was married to John Kelly, who died in 1913.

SWIFT ACTION IS UNEXPECTED; FDR ANSWERS

President Declares In- dustry, Jobless Will Suffer

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—In a swift, unexpected debate, the Roosevelt lending bill was killed in the house today; whereupon the president struck back with a declaration that the action was a blow to industry, the unemployed and the taxpayers.

With a jubilant coalition of Republicans and Democrats in command, the chamber refused, by a vote of 193 to 166, to take the $1,950,000,000 measure up for debate. This action followed senate passage yesterday of a much-reduced, $1,615,000,000 version of the same program.

After witnessing the dramatic display of insurgency today, Rep. Rayburn, Texted the administration leader, indicating that the other major money bill on the administration program—the $800,000,000 housing bill—was as good as dead.

While battle-weary legislators prepared to adjourn congress by Saturday night, President Roosevelt received reporters at his press conference. In a calm tone, he said that while he was not criticizing the legislators for something they had a perfect right to do, those who had acted hastily, affected the right to know where the responsibility lay and the names of those who voted against house consideration of the measure.

Cost to Taxpayers

A large number of industries would not have their production increased as planned, he said, and a large number of relief clients who would have got jobs would have to remain on relief. This, he said, would cost the taxpayers a pretty heavy price.

Mr. Roosevelt had asked $3,000,000,000 for loans which it, said would aid

Youthful Robbers Are Electrocutted In Massachusetts

Die With Prayers on Their Lips; Sing Hymns on The "Last Mile"

Boston, Aug. 2.—(Wednesday)—(P)—With prayers on their lips and singing hymns, two youthful robbers walked to their death in Massachusetts' renovated electric chair early today for the $3.50 holdup slaying of a Somerville storekeeper last year.

First to die was Walter Green, 20, of Somerville, who was pronounced dead at 10:23 P. M. (Central Standard Time)—a short while after he became reconciled with his companion in crime, Walter St. Sauveur, 19.

Green was singing hymns as he entered the death chamber.

St. Sauveur, next to pay the penalty for the holdup, was pronounced dead at 10:42 P. M. He walked to the chair with a prayer and singing a hymn.

The current was applied by "Mr. X," substitute executioner.

A short while before Green died, he and St. Sauveur spoke for the first time since they were convicted last October at a trial at which each accused the other of killing a Somerville shopkeeper.

"Mr. X," engaged to replace the veteran executioner Robert G. Elliott, who is ill in his New York home, tested the lethal chair yesterday. Prison officials, according to his request, declined to identify him, aside from saying he was "an out of town man."

Fabyan Library Is Given to Congress

Geneva, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—The Shakespearean library of Colonel George Fabyan and his own works on decoding secret messages of the central powers during the world war were given to the Library of Congress today under terms of the will of his widow, Nellie.

The will disposing of an estate estimated at $75,000 was filed in the Kane county probate court.

Fabyan, who died in 1937, was credited with organizing the cryptographic branch of the federal intelligence unit during the war. His widow, to whom he left his fortune and large estate at Geneva, died July 22.

The will left a large sum to charitable uses—$26,000 to employees of the River side laboratories where the colonel conducted his work in cryptography—$50,000 for maintenance of the labor, and the balance of $100,000 was to be used for the purchase of books.

The Balance Of Power

Two Jacksonville citizens known for their strong sympathies for the Republican party, were taking dinner at a restaurant the other evening, when in walked a third man, whose political affiliations they knew to be Democratic.

"What are you two gentlemen doing —plotting against the Democrats?" asked the newcomer, beating his acquaintances to the "draw" in what promised to be a good-natured verbal battle, and taking a seat at the same table.

"We don't deny it," responded one of the diners with a grin. "We're getting ready to get you guys in 1940."

The talk drifted this way and that, as the three friends, despite opposite party affiliation, made headway with their steaks. Sometimes the talk was boastful, often confiding, but for the most part the dinner table debaters stuck to facts.

Then the Democrat made a startling statement. "Well boys," he said, "after the New Deal had been under discussion for 15 minutes, 'I'm a Democrat, you understand, but I've had enough. I can't see it their way any longer—this last spending and lending bill convinced me that something must be done; the country can't go on forever like its gone the last few years.'"

The two Republicans were broad smiles. Their friend's words were sweet music to their ears. They felt like slapping him on the back and saying: "That's the spirit, old boy, old boy." But they restrained themselves, at the same time congratulating the speaker on his views.

Conversations of that kind have been taking place in this country ever since the party system of government was formed. There never has been a time, and probably never will be, when all members of either major party are entirely satisfied with the way things are being handled. Always there are certain party members who are willing to join with the opposite party, temporarily or otherwise, in attempting to right conditions or win a point.

Voters who jump party lines when dissatisfied are independent in thought, unfettered by political harness. They exert a powerful influence on American politics, though they may be regarded with distrust or mild contempt by hide-bound party leaders.

Back in 1932, a vast army of Republicans sneaked out of the party fold and helped to elect a Democratic administration. They were dissatisfied, ready to take a fling at anything new out of curiosity or confidence that a change would bring about better times. The Republican chieftains didn't like it, but they couldn't do anything about it.

This year, as political talk points to 1940 with its important elections, some Democrats are singing the same tune that uncontrolled Republicans rendered in chorus nearly eight years ago. They have seen their own party at the helm, and are of opinion that mistakes have been made. They are willing to forget party lines to bring about improvements, if they can.

There was a question before the election in 1932 as to how largely the "dissatisfied" vote would figure in the results. The Democratic landslide was the result. There is a question today that will persist until the votes are counted next November, 1940, as to how many citizens, like the man who aired his views in the restaurant, will convey their dissatisfaction of the present administration to the polls.

We hear a great deal about the "silent" vote in elections, that section of citizenry which sits back and lets the other fellow do the talking, then votes as it pleases. The "silent" vote has frequently controlled the outcome of elections, but in modern politics it has a strong rival—the dissatisfied vote, the people who had faith but lost it, the voters who disagree with policies framed by their leaders, and believe that others, even those of different political belief, can stimulate and strengthen the fabric of national economic life.

The balance of power these days can hardly be termed political—it is a majority of those who are satisfied, or a coalition of those who are not.

Canada To The Fore

Once again the increasing importance of Canada in the scheme of the British Empire is brought out. Great Britain is about to establish large wheat reserves in that country.

Having filled all available storage space on the "light little island," Hal-fax and St. John will be utilized to pile up even greater reserves.

This not only helps to alleviate Canada's surplus wheat situation, which is like that of the United States, but it further secures Britain against wartime emergency. The ports chosen are those closest to Britain itself, making the grain quickly available at any time so long as command of the sea is not lost.

It has been speculated for some time that Canada was destined to play a more important role in Empire affairs than heretofore. Certain airplane production and other munitions work has already been brought to Canada, and more will follow.

The United States is happy to see these moves, which strengthen the New World and lengthen the shadow of the Western Hemisphere in world affairs.

Four-H Club Girls Open Three Day Camp Period

All set for three big days, members of various Morgan County Four-H club units for girls opened their annual camp period Monday at Nichols Park. The girls brought in their coats, bed clothing and foodstuffs, and set up quarters in one of the screened in pavilions. Their camp will close Wednesday afternoon, and Thursday the boys Four-H club units will take over.

County Winners Gather at Camp

Four of the seven girls who will represent Morgan County at the State Fair Four-H club contests are shown above after they unpacked for a three day camping period at Nichols Park Monday. The girls were selected in contests held last week here.

Above are Joan Drury, Ethel Baxter, Mrs. Leta Luebbers, in charge of the girls' camp, Dorothy Scott and Marie Boddy.

White Hall Woman Fractures Hip in Fall While Shopping

Trips Over Sister While on Street; Both Women are Injured

White Hall—Mrs. Arabella Dean and her sister, Mrs. Henrietta Lee, aged residents of this city were down town Saturday afternoon together and Mrs. Lee in some manner fell and tripped Mrs. Dean who fell over Mrs. Lee and fractured her right hip.
Dr. W. H. Garrison was called and had them taken to Dr. W. T. Stickley's office where an X-ray was made and then to their own homes. Mrs.
Lee was not seriously hurt. Her injuries consisted of a bruised knee.
The Dawdy ambulance service was used to take Mrs. Dean home.

News Notes

Sleeping Sickness Fatal to Kane Man

Rossie Burch, Farm Laborer, Expires Sunday in Alton Hospital

Jerseyville—Sleeping sickness, encephalitis, claimed its first victim of the summer in this locality, when Rossie Henry Burch, 25, resident of the Kane vicinity, succumbed to an attack of the disease at St. Anthony's Infirmary in Alton where he had been removed for treatment.
Funeral services for Burch were held Tuesday afternoon, August 1st, at two o'clock, from the Bethany church.

Burch first became ill of the disease July 20th when he last worked as a laborer on a farm. He was the son of the late Jacob and Rachel Dunham Burch and was born November 13, 1913.
He is survived by his mother, two brothers, Harry L. and Freddie L.
Burch, of Kane; three sisters, Mrs.
Ellen M. Freand of Jerseyville, Mrs.
Pay T. McAdams of Peoria, and Mrs.
May M. Freand of Kane.

ICE BOX NEWS

Guests From Far North Tell How Cold It Gets in Alberta

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Herbert of Grimshaw, Alberta, Canada, are visiting at the Robert VanTuyke home north of Roodhouse. Monday they came to Jacksonville and did some shopping and told something of the country from which they come.

Their home is 900 miles north of the Canadian border, almost within the Arctic circle. The mercury at times drops to 72 degrees below zero, and temperatures of 40 and 45 below are common during the long winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert purchased a small radio at a local store, which they will take back with them to pick up messages the broadcasting stations far to the south will be sending into the icy atmosphere where the northern lights cast their brilliant hues.

FUNERAL OF PAUL L. STAFF HELD TUESDAY

Funeral services for Paul Leewin
Staff were held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Gillham Funeral Home in charge of Rev. W. C. Meeker.
Violin music was furnished by Mrs.
Clara Moore Neims, with Miss Ainslie
Moore as accompanist.

Those caring for the flowers were Mrs. Frank McCarthy, Mrs. Kenneth Stapleton, and Misses Reta and Ruth Staff. The casket bearers were Clarence Massey, Jr., D. D. Artz, Harold Littler and James Lacey. Interment took place in Memorial Lawn cemetery.

Among those from out of the city who attended the services were Mr.
and Mrs. W. G. Breitenstein, Lake Helen, Fla.; Miss Ethel Lacey, Lamon, Iowa; Mrs. Peter Staff, Mrs.
Herbert Staff, Betty, Ill.; William E. Breitenstein.

Four-H Club Girls Open Camp at Park; Send for Blankets

But They Roll Out Early to Get in Morning Dip Before Work Period

Some of the between 80 and 100
Four H club girls from all over Morgan county who are camping at Nichols park sent home for bigger and heavier blankets Tuesday afternoon, their first night in one of the screened in pavilions at Nichols park, but despite the cold, which came down in generous quantities during the night, the girls rolled out early and took a morning dip in the park pool before beginning their first full day in camp.

The camp period will close Wednesday afternoon, and Thursday morning the boys from Four H clubs from all over the county will begin their three day camp period.

Camp life was moving along rapidly, and the big store of provisions, contributed by the girls, was rapidly diminishing. There'll be enough food to last the camp period, and probably a little more than enough, but the camp leaders laid in a big stock in anticipation of lousy appetites created by the camp program.

Tuesday morning Miss Anna Searl, of Urbana, gave the girls a talk on personality, explaining what made girls popular. Following her talk there was a handicraft session, and then came a rest period. The afternoon also will be devoted to games, swimming, another talk, and additional handicraft work.

Mrs. Leta Luebbers, Morgan-Scott county home adviser is in charge of the camp, and is being assisted by several club leaders.

Mrs. Edith Leeper, county health nurse, gave the camp two inspections, one immediately after it was established Monday, and another Tuesday morning. She found conditions ideal, she reported to the camp management.

Only two girls have left the camp, and they were called home because of the death of their grandfather.

CLAIM FOR McNUTT

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—Representative Walter, chairman of Pennsylvania's Democratic delegation in the house, contended today Paul V.
McNutt, the Federal Security administrator, could carry Pennsylvania over any Republican candidate in the 1940 presidential campaign.

Walter, talking with reporters, said he doubted that President Roosevelt would seek a third term and that Mc-Nutt would make a Democratic candidate in whom the people of Pennsylvania could find "aggressive liberal leadership."

Senator Cuffey, Pennsylvania's Democratic senator, has declared for a third term for President Roosevelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stapleton were Waverly callers here Monday.

Tigers Down Yanks And Ruffing; Boston Sox Defeat Indians

Senators Win From St. Louis Browns; Chicago Sox Tounce Mackmen

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, Aug. 1.—(P)—Led by big Hank Greenberg, the Detroit Tigers aroused themselves today to beat the world champion Yankees 5 to 2 and end Charley (The Red) Ruffing's old hex.

Since June 6, 1937, the durable righthander had tamed the Tigers 13 consecutive times and he allowed only seven hits today compared to an even dozen collected by the Yanks.

But one of the Detroit blows was Greenberg's 20th home run of the season with two teammates on base in the first inning and these runs proved all the Tigers needed with Paul Trout and Archie McKain holding tight in the clutch.

Greenberg also doubled and scored on Pinky Higgins' single in the third. Earl Averill doubled and successive outfield flies brought him home for the Tigers' other run in the sixth.

Trout got credit for the victory. He fed George Selkirk a home run ball in the second inning. Selkirk's 18th, and gave up another tally in the eighth on a walk and two singles.

McKain took charge in the ninth with one on and none out and subdued the Yankees although giving Joe DiMaggio a double to continue the Yankee star's hitting streak through 12 straight games.

By innings: R H E Detroit.....301 001 000-5 7 1 New York.....010 000 010-2 12 0 Trout, McKain and Tebbetts; Ruffing and Dickey.

Boston 7; Cleveland 5

Boston, Aug. 1.—(P)—Thanks to Bobby Doerr's grand-slam homer—his second round tripper of the day—39-year-old Robert Moses Grove gained a 7 to 5 pitching verdict over 20-year-old Bob Feller today as the Boston Red Sox took the series opener from Cleveland.

Doerr already had contributed a homer with no one on in the first inning when he stepped to the plate in the fifth after Joe Vosmik doubled and Desautels and Grove had walked.

Two men were out and Cleveland was leading, 3 to 1. Doerr smashed the first pitch into the left field. Cleveland historians said it was the first time in two years when Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees turned the trick, that any player had clipped Feller for two homers in one game.

The Indians played the last part of the game with a patched up lineup and their manager, Oscar Vitt, off the bench as the result of repeated run-ins with the umpires.

By innings: R H E Cleveland.....100 200 002-5 10 1 Boston.....100 041 01X-7 7 1 Feller, Dobson and Hemsley; Grove and Desautels.

Washington 7; St. Louis 5

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—Washington combed two St. Louis pitchers for 14 hits today to beat the Browns 7 to 5.

St. Louis pushed across two runs in the 9th, filled the bases and knocked Ken Chase from the box. Pete Appleton went to his relief, with the tying and winning runs on base retired the next two batters.

By innings: R H E St. Louis.....001 000 202-5 9 0 Washington.....120 031 00X-7 14 2 Kennedy, Lawson and Glenn; Chase, Appleton and Giuliani.

Chicago 4; Athletics 1

Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—(P)—With Jack Knott hitting nine-hit ball, the Chicago White Sox beat the Athletics 4 to 1 today in the opening game of a series of four.

Larry Rosenthal accounted for the victor's first two tallies by hitting his third home run of the season behind Joe Kuhel's single in the fourth inning.

Not a Mackmen passed second on Knott until the ninth when they scored their lone run.

By innings: R H E Chicago.....000 202 000-4 9 1 Philadelphia.....000 001 001-1 9 1 Knott and Tresh; Potter and F. Hayes.

DeMolays Spot Bakers Nine Runs in First; Macs Snatch Win 9-8

Mac's Clothiers pushed over two runs in the last half of the seventh inning to nose out the Amalgamated Clothing Workers 9 to 8, in a nip and tuck B league game Monday night at the Lake Mauvalster park in the Y.M.C.A. softball league, after the Lucky Boys had taken an easy decision from the DeMolays 10 to 6.

Going into the last frame with the score tied at 7 all, the Clothing Workers pushed into the lead on three singles which produced one run. The Clothiers produced two runs in their half of the inning on the same number of hits aided by a Clothing Worker error. Weigand's triple was the longest blow of the game.

Deitz and Fricke was the Mac's battery, and Moody and Arundt toiled for the Clothing Workers.

The DeMolays spotted the Lucky Boys nine runs in the first inning, and then held them to one run for the remainder of the game to lose a 10 to 6 decision. The nine runs came on four walks, three singles and two errors. Kram took over the DeMolay mound work in the second inning and after that frame, held the Lucky Boys scoreless.

Riggs and Hammond was the Lucky Boy battery, while Middaugh was the starting DeMolay pitcher. Self was the catcher.

Cubs Wallop Phils; Cards Shade Bees; Giants Beat Reds

Dodgers Trim Pittsburgh; French Wins After Relieving Dean

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—Larry French, the veteran southpaw who had asked owner Phil Wrigley to do something about his case of bench-riding, got his chance today and pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 6 to 2 victory over the Philadelphia Phils in their series opener.

Dizzy Dean started but was taken out at the end of the third inning when he complained of soreness in his right arm just below the shoulder. He had allowed one run and two hits to that point.

French, who told Wrigley he was in Manager Gabby Hartnett's "doghouse" because he had expressed a preference for Gus Mancuso as a catcher, set the Phils down in the last six innings with six hits and one run. It was his seventh victory as against five losses.

Wrigley saw the game from his box, one of the few Cub engagements he has witnessed this season.

Mancuso was French's catcher today, the veteran receiver having started the game with Dean. Before the game Hartnett had said he planned to rest for a few days and leave the catching to Mancuso.

The Cubs collected 11 hits off two Philly hurlers, including a home run by outfielder Bill Nicholson, former Chattanooga Southern Association player making his National league debut.

Umpire Bick Campbell banished the Phils manager, Doc Prothro, from the game in the fifth for protesting a decision.

By innings: R H E Philadelphia.....010 001 000-2 8 1 Chicago.....110 310 00X-6 11 1 Higbe, Kerkisick and Millies; Dean, French and Mancuso.

St. Louis 4; Boston 3

St. Louis, Aug. 1.—(P)—The Cardinals were in a tripping mood today, getting four three-base hits in defeating the Boston Bees, 4 to 3, for Curt Davis' 14th victory.

Johnny Mize got two of the long hits, driving in a run each time. Pepper Martin tripped behind Davis' double and scored himself on an error. The fourth Cardinal three-bagger, by Stuart Martin, was wasted.

To offset these extra-base wallops, the Bees had a triple by Rabbit Warstler and doubles by Debs Garm and Tony Cucinello in their collection of 12 hits. The Cardinals got only eight hits, all off starting pitcher Danny MacFayden.

By innings: R H E Boston.....000 200 010-3 12 1 St. Louis.....100 030 00X-4 8 2 MacFayden, Erickson and Lopez; Davis, Shoun and Owen.

New York 5; Cincinnati 4

Cincinnati, Aug. 1.—(P)—The visiting New York Giants, the only club holding an edge for the season over Cincinnati's National league leaders, nosed out a 5 to 4 ten-inning victory today and tied the Reds' winning streak at 10 games.

Harry Danning singled Bill Jurges home from second in the tenth for the winning run after he had tripped two other tallies across in the midst of a four-run rally in the sixth.

Paul Derringer, dean of the Cincinnati pitching corps, went the route in absorbing his fifth defeat against 14 trippers. He blew a three run lead when the Giants staged their six-hit spree in the sixth but otherwise was invincible until the tenth.

By innings: R H E Cincinnati.....000 004 000-1 5 11 0 Cincinnati.....001 201 000-4 8 0 Salvo, Melton and Danning; Derringer and Lombardi.

Brooklyn 5; Pittsburgh 3

Pittsburgh, Aug. 1.—(P)—Pat Freddy Fitzsimmons, who hadn't won a game since beating Pittsburgh in mid-July, pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 5 to 3 victory over the Pirates today although having to call for help from Vito Tamulis.

The Dodgers came from behind in the fifth with a three-run uprising on two singles, a double by Harry Lettisto and a triple by Dixie Walker.

By innings: R H E Brooklyn.....100 031 000-5 10 1 Pittsburgh.....200 001 000-3 6 0 Fitzsimmons, Tamulis and Phelps; Brown, Klinger and Berres.

Johnny Blood Has "Benched" Himself

Winds Up Fifteen Years of Strenuous Football

Pittsburgh, Aug. 1.—(P)—Johnny Blood has benched himself permanently as a player after 15 years of strenuous competition in the National Professional Football League.

The coach of the Pittsburgh grid Pirates said last night barring unforeseen emergency he would manage the club next season from the sidelines.

The veteran grider broke into all but one box score last season, his second as boss of Art Rooney's machine. He played the entire 60 minutes of a bitterly-fought engagement with Green Bay in his hometown.

Blood crashed the paid pickup endeavor in 1924 after wearing the colors of Notre Dame, Minnesota and St. Thomas.

His first pro job was with Milwaukee. Then he moved to Duluth and before coming here served five years with the Green Bay Packers. After a year here Blood returned to Green Bay for two more terms then came back in 1937 to succeed Joe Bach as Pittsburgh coach.

Blood's team leaves Wednesday for training at Two Rivers, Wis. He is grooming "Big" McCullough, 185-pound Oklahoma star, to fill Whizzer White's place in the backfield next fall.

industry and employment. Administration men said the projects would be self-liquidating and would not increase the national debt. Critics disputed this and called the plan dangerous to the federal finances, and an undesirable grant of tremendous power to the executive.

The house action today came after Rayburn had made an appeal to his democratic colleagues, saying that when the president recommended a program "it is asking little" of the house to consider it.

Before the crowded chamber, his voice rising higher and higher, he said to obtain recovery it is necessary that "labor be employed and capital active, on the farm, in the mine and in the counting house."

Virginians Oppose

Two Virginians—Representatives Woodrum and Robertson—both assailed the measure. Woodrum said it proposed a "revolutionary departure" from the government's traditional method of appropriating money.

Robertson declared that he believed the proposition came from a British economist, John Maynard Keynes, who was "unable to sell his own country on the theory of spending for recovery" and so came to America and "sold" Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the federal reserve board.

The vote that followed re-emphasized the split in democratic ranks and the smooth operation of the Republican house machine bent on blocking the program. Not a single Republican voted to have the bill considered.

Joined with the 146 Republicans who voted against consideration were 47 Democrats. The 163 Democrats for taking up the bill were supported by three minor party members—two Wisconsin Progressives and the only American-Laborite.

Immediately after the house had blasted the program out of the picture, Representative Rayburn, in an interview with newsmen, grinned: "It won't be long now."

Rayburn said he referred to adjournment.

Wage-Hour Law

Rayburn asserted that he expected "insistence from some quarters" for a vote on legislation providing exemptions from the wage-hour law but that no decision had been made on that point.

Another matter which he said might possibly come up, was amendments to the Social Security Act, which among other things would freeze present payroll taxes for unemployment insurance until January 1, 1943.

The amendments have been tied up in a dispute between the Senate and House as to the extent of old age assistance to states. The House voted $20 per person on a strict 50-50 federal-state matching basis.

The Senate social security bill would provide for 2 to 1 matching by the federal government up to total assistance of $15 and 50-50 matching thereafter until the federal government had supplied $20.

Rayburn said it would be "most unfortunate" if the amendment were shelved.

At his press conference, President Roosevelt said that if the lending program had been adopted, its effects would have been felt by industry within 60 to 90 days and orders would have begun to flow that would have put people to work almost immediately, thereby removing many from the relief rolls and saving the taxpayers that expense.

PWA Estimates

Estimates of the Public Works Administration have been that for every man given work on a project 31 persons are also employed indirectly, he said.

The president made similar observations when informed that prospects for the housing bill were not good. An objective of this measure, increasing the United States Housing Authority's borrowing power by $800,000,000, was to begin slum clearance in smaller cities.

The program to date has concentrated on very essential projects in larger cities. Mr. Roosevelt said, although there was great need for similar programs in the smaller towns. Should this bill fail, he asserted, many persons will be denied opportunity for work.

Asked about charges that the whole program was proposed to circumvent the $45,000,000,000 limit on the public debt, the president answered with an analogy about bank deposits.

If a bank had a million dollars of deposits would it be fair, he asked, for any one to say in Congress, on the stump, or in an editorial that that bank had a debt of $1,000,000, without saying further that more than suiting that debt.

Debt "Explanation"

He asked whether it was fair to say when the government borrows money and lends it out that the government is that much in debt. Isn't it fair also to say, he asked, that the government received certain securities and promises to pay. He asserted it was worth remembering that back in 1934 speech after speech was made in Congress by Republicans and a few Democrats that all this RFC business was a lot of bunk.

He said it was claimed that the RFC would not get back 50 percent of its loans. The then budget director, Lewis Douglas, frequently came into the White House with a long face, he said, and argued that Chairman Jesse Jones was unduly optimistic.

The president continued that the record showed all these persons were wrong because Jones was getting all the money back.

STORIES IN STAMPS

U. S. Merchant Marine Bids for Sea Glory

EIGHTY years ago the American Merchant Marine was the best in the world. Fleet Clipper ships set amazing speed records for sailing vessels, dominated ocean commerce. The American-built Savannah, in 1819, was the first steam-powered ship to cross the Atlantic.

The Civil War, the development of western railroads and westward emigration turned American thoughts from the sea and a generation after the Civil War scarcely 10 per cent of U. S. commerce was borne in American ships.

Today American ships carry a third of the nation's foreign commerce, but the merchant fleet is obsolete. In total tonnage, United States ranks fourth among world powers, behind Britain, Japan and Germany, slightly ahead of Italy and France. In new vessels—10 years old and less—United States ranks last.

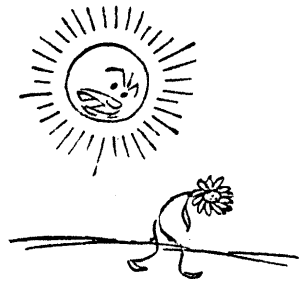

The launching of the new super-sate liner America, on Aug. 31, marks the return to glory of the American Merchant Marine. This vessel, the first of 600 in a 10-year program, is the biggest steamer ever built in United States and the safest ship ever constructed. Every means of safeguarding its 1219 passengers have been incorporated into the construction of the 723-foot, 28,000-ton ship.

An American ocean liner is shown on the U. S. 10-cent stamp, enlarged above, brown and black, of the Pan-American series of 1901.

SERIAL STORY

WAR AND A WOMAN

BY BETTY WALLACE

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday, at the field, Marcia leaves to talk to Bill Brooks, a cadet. When Jimmy asks, "Was I wrong, just now, or did you feel it?" Linda tells him she is leaving for home, at once. Marcia returns.

CHAPTER V

"MARCIA!" Linda cried warningly. In the one word was contained an urgent pleading. Jimmy must not know how she felt about this naval air base, about the planes, about war. What difference did it make—why drag that in to torture and torment him? There was enough keeping them apart without that.

"But if Jimmy knew the real reason why you want to go home—"

"Marcia!"

"But darn it, it's so silly, when you get right down to it! It's making a mountain out of a mole hill!"

It would be a mountain, high and impregnable, if Jimmy ever knew it. Linda thought unhappily. Their fight was hard enough already. Because they were both honorable people, they were trying to reason away the mysterious attraction which was catapulting them toward each other. But even if there hadn't been Marcia King, for Jimmy—and if there weren't George Cameron, in Queensville, for Linda—this thing alone would have split them apart.

Jimmy Cooper was standing, straight and still, the sunlight on his rumpled tawny hair and his eyes on Linda's face. "If it's something you don't want me to know, of course Marcia mustn't tell me," he said tonelessly.

"All right, all right," Marcia moved impatiently. "But she's not going home! She came down here to be maid of honor at our wedding, and she's not going to wiggle out of it!"

Linda wanted to cry out that she dared not say. She wanted to say, "Marcia, you fool! If I remain here maybe there won't be a wedding! How can you be so blind? Can't you see what's going on?"

But Marcia was sunny and assured again. Her arm slipped inside of Linda's. "I'm a rotten hostess, that's what it is. I ran off and left you to listen to Bill Brooks' tale of woe. I'm going to take good care of you from now on and give you a real whirl. You'll have such a good time. You'll forget all about—all about everything else."

She told him about Queensville. "Aha, just a college widow," he said.

No, he wasn't brilliant. But he stuck close to her, and that was

They cut the sight-seeing short. To Linda's relief, Jimmy stayed on the field and Marcia drove the car home. Nothing had been solved. Somehow she'd have to get through the two weeks ahead.

Suddenly she wanted, more than anything else, to see George Cameron again. If he was here, close beside her, she'd snap back into her senses. Everything would become serene and normal again. On an impulse, after lunch, she went to her room and wrote him a note.

"Dear George—Please come down here right away. I am missing you dreadfully! George, just for two weeks, can't you look up the laboratory to be with me? I need you. Love, Linda."

It might not have been so bad, if, in the days that followed, Marcia had not innocently insisted on throwing Jimmy and Linda together so much. But she wanted her friend to have a gay time, and she wanted Jimmy beside her, too.

Linda was waiting for an answer from George. The third day after she had mailed the letter, it still hadn't come. She was tempted to telephone him. But he'd wonder what had happened, and so she kept herself from acting too panic stricken.

That night—it was a Saturday—Marcia had arranged a party at the Officers' Club. Linda heard her telling Jimmy, "Don't forget to dance with Linda. You haven't danced with her once since she's been here."

Oh, the fool! The blind fool! A sob rose in Linda's throat. She stumbled blindly away. But the porch was no sanctuary either, because it was here that she had first looked up into Jimmy's eyes.

THE Officers' Club was not quite what she had expected. Men in uniform, girls in evening dress. But the tables were bare, and the decorations far simpler than those in the night spots at home. Everyone knew everyone else. There was much calling back and forth, much familiar banter and teasing laughter.

Linda was grateful for the lanky young lieutenant. Marcia had repudiated to escort her. His name was Peter. He, too, was a flight instructor at the field. And he was much taken with her combination of golden hair and golden eyes. "How come the Navy didn't discover you long ago?" he wanted to know. "I've never seen you before."

She told him about Queensville. "Aha, just a college widow," he said.

No, he wasn't brilliant. But he stuck close to her, and that was something. It protected her from looking at Jimmy Cooper too obviously. She prayed, too, that Peter's attentions would divert Marcia. "She'll see I'm no wall flower. She doesn't need to force Jimmy to dance with me."

But after she had danced several times with Peter, she saw Marcia nudging Jimmy. Linda grabbed her vanity case, she stood up. "Excuse me. I—"

"Excuse me. I—"

"I—I'm tired," she whispered. He said quietly, "I won't bite you."

So she stood up and slipped into his arms, while Marcia regarded them both affectionately.

His hand on her back was gentle, and he guided her surely and expertly. But she couldn't bear it any more. A soft sob broke from her. "Please, no more."

They were standing perfectly still while the music rose poignantly and unbearably. For a long moment, there was no one else in all the world but their two selves.

"Shall we go out on the porch?" he was asking, his voice curiously hoarse.

THEY shouldn't go. Yet she was walking beside him like a girl in a trance.

"We shouldn't—oh—we shouldn't," she burst out.

"I know," he said miserably. "But, Linda—I've fought until I can't deny it, even to myself, any more. I haven't slept. I look at Marcia, and she's still the same as she always was. She loves me. It's like a knife in my heart to know she trusts me. But I can't take her in my arms any more. I can't tell her I love her any more. The whole world has changed. There's nothing but you. I see your face up there in the clouds when I ought to be concentrating on the way my student is flying. I hear your voice everywhere. It's driving me crazy! We've got to do something."

He had no right to put it into words! While he had been only a mirage, beautiful and unreal, beckoning and yet threatening, she had still had the courage to run from it. But now these words of his made it solid, inescapable.

"Listen!" she jerked out. "Even if there weren't Marcia—even if I weren't engaged myself—I couldn't—Jimmy, you're a flyer. A man whose career is devoted to war. And I'm a peace-loving girl. A pacifist, if you like. I hate your work! And—and I hate you for being in it to so there!"
